

Standard 5

Uses a variety of methods to monitor student learning.

In addition to traditional monitoring techniques, I utilize Schoology in my classroom quite often. This allows me to distribute tests, quizzes, readings, and materials instantaneously to the students, and they can access the content anywhere they have Internet access. Students also receive their test grades immediately, and parents can access all of the information as well.